

Quantum Solutions will Receive a Major Sales Order and After-Sales Service for NVIDIA-manufactured GPU servers from a Major Internet Search Engine Company

- Purchase NVIDIA GPU Servers.
- The GPU servers will be sold to end users such as search engines and major companies providing global net services.
- The purchase price of the NVIDIA GPU server to be delivered is approximately 1.35 billion yen.

Our company has announced that it will purchase GPU servers manufactured by NVIDIA, which includes after-sales service, and plans to sell them to major Internet search engine companies that are well-known worldwide.

This sales order is a major milestone for Quantum Solutions. It marks the beginning of Quantum's GPU trading business, which was announced on September 4, 2023, in line with the company's strategic direction in artificial intelligence (AI), announced on September 11, 2023. It also highlights Quantum's growing presence in the AI hardware market.

Mark Pink, Representative Director of Quantum Solutions, said upon this announcement,

"We are proud to offer our customers exceptional quality and performance, and by harnessing the power of GPUs, we aim to help our customers accelerate their AI-driven applications and enhance their overall capabilities."

The leading companies that will be selling the product are widely known for their comprehensive AI products, which include AI chips and deep learning frameworks, in addition to core AI capabilities such as natural language processing, knowledge graphs, speech recognition, computer vision, and augmented reality.

Therefore, Quantum will procure GPU products from Kaytus Singapore Pte. Ltd., a leading provider of IT infrastructure products and solutions, with a total value of over ¥1.35 billion Yen.

The distributorship agreement with KAYTUS, announced on September 4, 2023, enables the Company to deliver high-quality products, including NVIDIA's H100 GPU servers, to valued clients.

With this announcement, we are committed to solidifying our position as a trusted provider of state-of-the-art GPU servers for the search engine industry.
